Description

UNICEF has now issued a Invitation to Bid in order to select a supplier for the of Establishment of Long Term Arrange- ment (LTA) for the procurement of ICT equipment with delivery to any location within Yemen

This tender will be run through the UNICEF e-submissions system. By clicking on the blue 'Express Interest' button in the UNGM tender notice, the full UNICEF e-submission system instructions to bidders document (including instructions on how to access the tender documents and submit an Offer) will be automatically emailed to the 'contact persons' included in your UNGM registration. Alternatively, the full UNICEF e-submission system instructions to bidders docu- ment is publicly available on the UNICEF supply internet pages here:

https://www.unicef.org/supply/index\_procurement\_policies.html

In the tender management site, if you navigate to the documents tab and opt in to confirm your intention to submit a Bid – you will then see the mandatory placeholders for documents that must be attached prior to submitting your Of- fer (you will also see if there are any mandatory questionnaires to complete). As such, you are recommended to `opt in` well before the submission deadline so you are clear exactly what documents are required to be uploaded prior to completing your submission. Please note that in order to access the tender documentation through UNICEF's e-sub- missions system, vendors must: (i) be registered with UNICEF in UNGM as a company/NGO; (ii) have successfully com- pleted all mandatory information currently required by UNGM when registering. Please ensure that any files submit- ted as part of your Bid are not corrupt or damaged in any way. Please exercise particular caution when using
