The consulting services (“the Services”) for developing the e-Government Strategy and Implementation Roadmap include: (i) undertaking an e-Government comprehensive assessment and gaps analysis; (ii) developing the e-Government strategy document; (iii) developing an implementation action plan/roadmap for the digitalization of government with cost estimates anchored in the local context; (iv) conducting necessary stakeholder consultation and validation workshops.

Any strategy developed will need to be sensitive to local realities, in terms of current ICT access and adoption, institutional capacity and resources, balancing a forward-looking and ambitious strategy with a pragmatic and phased approach.

These services are expected to commence early 2022 and to be finished within a period not exceeding 8 months.

The Terms of Reference (TOR) for the assignment can be found at the following link: <http://tiny.cc/egov-strategy-tor>

The Ministry of Telecom and Information Technology (MTIT) now invites eligible consulting firms (“Consultants”) to indicate their interest in providing the Services. Interested Consultants should provide information demonstrating that they have the required qualifications and relevant experience to perform the Services.

The shortlisting criteria of the firm are: core business and years in business, relevant experience, technical and managerial capability of the firm. Key Experts will not be evaluated at the shortlisting stage.

The attention of interested Consultants is drawn to Section III, paragraphs, 3.14, 3.16, and 3.17 of the World Bank’s “Procurement Regulations for IPF Borrowers” dated November 2020 (“Procurement Regulations”), setting forth the World Bank’s policy on conflict of interest.

Consultants may associate with other firms to enhance their qualifications, but should indicate clearly whether the association is in the form of a joint venture and/or a sub-consultancy. In the case of a joint venture, all the partners in the joint venture shall be jointly and severally liable for the entire contract, if selected.

A Consultant will be selected in accordance with the Quality and Cost Based Selection (QCBS) procurement method set out in the Procurement Regulations.
